

Breaking the Taboo: Managing the Hidden Effects of Multiple Sclerosis

Thursday, 16th September, 7.00pm for 7.30pm
The O'Reilly Hall, University College Dublin, Belfield, Dublin 4

Speakers:

Dr. Niall Tubridy,

Consultant Neurologist, St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin

Mr. Austin Claffey,

Senior Occupational Therapist, St. Mary's Hospital, London

Dr. Theresa Burke,

Senior Lecturer, Neuropsychology, UCD

Chair: Áine Lawlor, RTE

Presentations will be followed by a Question and Answer Session
Light refreshments will be served on arrival

We invite the general public and all interested parties to register for the above lecture. Places are limited so please register early for this event to secure a seat and avoid disappointment.

Parking available, Car Park 2, UCD

Please call 1850 94 64 64 to book your seat now
(9.00am to 5.00pm, Monday to Friday)

Sponsored by an educational grant from Schering AG

